Sri M. Rama Rao
Assistant Secretary Report

1) I am due to retire after putting 33 years of Loyal and Efficient service under Government. I started my life as first division clerk in the Secretariat. After a very long service of 27 years, I was promoted to the Gazetted rank as Assistant Secretary to Government. I am now getting a total emolument of Rs.515/- (Salary Rs.425/-, duty allowance of Rs.50/- as Secretary Public Health Committee of the Economic Conference and high price allowance of Rs.40/- per month). After my retirement my pension will stand at about Rs.190/- or so per month. I need not say how difficult it would be to manage my house hold with this very much reduced income. This ~~sharp~~ great disparity between my present emoluments and the pension that I may get id due to the fact that the duty allowance of Rs.50/-per month, which I have been drawing continuously from 31st ~~May~~ August 1945, will not be counted for calculating average emoluments, without the special orders of Government. This duty allowance, I submit, is not of a compensatory character, as in the case of Civil Service Assistant Secretaries. This allowance is given to me for doing the duties of the Secretary to the Public Health Committee of the Economic Conference for which there is no separate sanctioned post. Therefore the allowance, that I am now drawing, is ~~practically in the nature of~~ like teaching allowance which are permitted to be reckoned for pension

2) Under Civil Service ~~rules~~ Regulations the duty allowance is counted for pension. The day may not be far off when, in ~~the~~ Mysore also the same concessions may be granted in view of the integration of services. The Government of India have permitted even the counting of a portion ~~pension~~ of the high price allowance drawn by their officers to count for pension.

3) Even in Mysore, this the only allowance to be counted for pension was being permitted prior to 1934, when on account of retrenchment, the permission was withdrawn. Even recently Government have generously conceded this in the case of some of their servants. I may be permitted to mention the cases of Sri N.V.Sundram, my collegue who retired last year, and Sri P.V.Krishnaswamy of the Food Department.

4. In conclusion, I beg to request, that in view of my loyal service of 33 years, of my having continuously drawn this duty allowance for four years and ten months for 31st August 1945, and of the fact that this duty allowance is given to me for additional work that is being done by me, and also in view of the precedents cited above, this duty allowance of Rs.50/- per month may be generously permitted to be reckoned for calculating my pension. The grant of this request, will enable me to draw some enhanced pension in the evening of my life, with the feeling of comfort and consolation that the Government of Mysore have generously extended a parental solicitude to their retired officers.

7 The request of Sri M. Rama Rao is that he may be allowed duty allowance of Rs 50 p.m. which he is drawing as the Secy to the public Health Committee of the Economic conference, may be permitted to be reckoned for calculating his pension. This request is outside M.S.R.

8 There are precedents both for and against the present case. Sri N. V. Sundaram and Sri P. N. Krishnaswami were permitted to count the duty allowances drawn by them towards their pensions. But Sri Representation of Sri M. Rama Rao to permit him to count his duty allowance towards his pension. 476 C.B.

and Sri S. Hiranmaiya

Sri C. G. Ramaiya, were not allowed to count his duty allowances drawn by them towards their pensions.

Kind reference is invited to the following Collections placed below:

(1) C.B. 65-48-2 relating to the grant of certain concessions to Sri N.V. Sundaram;

2) C.B. 71-47-1 treating the duty allowance granted to Sri P.N. Krishnaswamy as personal allowance; and

3) C.B. 348-48 (1 & 2) relating to the refusal of the request of Sri S. Hiranyanniah to treat his duty allowance drawn by him as personal allowance.

9 The present case is different from the case of Sri Sundaram. Sri Sundaram was not granted any extension of service and he could not have the benefit of his revised grade pay of the Asst. Secretaries to count as he had to retire on the date from which the revised grade was given effect to. Sri M. Rama Rao has been granted the following concessions:-

(i) granted an extension of service for a period of one year from the date of his superannuation,

(ii) permitted to utilise 3 months leave after the expiry of his extension.

10 The request of Sri S. Hiranyniya to treat his duty allowance drawn by him as personal allowance was lapsed down as his case was not similar with that of Sri Sundaram's case. It may perhaps be relevant to [redacted] the views expressed by the Fin Secy on the representation of Sri S. Hiranmaiya :—

"The request has already been considered and lapsed down more than once. I still adhere to my views already recorded. Moreover his case is not in all fours with that of Sri N.V. Sundaram, who could not have the benefit of the revised grade as he happened to retire on the date from which the revised grade was given effect to.

In this connection, I may state that the pension charges are mounting every year and if such requests are sanctioned which are inadmissible under the rules, the financial burden will be increased unnecessarily. Every such case will become a precedent for new cases to come up. Such requests should therefore not be viewed with favour in financial interests of the State."

11 The case of Sri P.N. Krishnaswamy cited by Sri Rama Rao is also different from the present case. The duty allowance drawn by Sri Krishnaswamy was allowed to be treated as personal allowance to the officer on the following grounds:—

i) that Sri Krishnaswami was stagnating on the same pay for nearly 6 years and

ii) that the probationers taken along with him had better prospects than Sri Krishnaswami and he remained in Supply Dept alone.

12 Under the circumstances the request of Sri M. Rama Rao to permit the duty allowance of Rs 50/p.m. which he is drawing to count for his pension is for orders and requires financial concurrence.

2/5/50. 13 The request, if granted, would be Council matter.

17 The points referred to at A of the representation are the following :—

(i) that the duty allowance which is being drawn by Sri Rama Rao is not of a compensatory character as in the case of the Civil Service Asst. Secretaries and that the allowance is given to him for doing the work of the Secy to the P.H. Committee and therefore it is like teaching allowance which is permitted to count for pension.

(ii) under civil Service Regulations the duty allowance is counted for pension.

(iii) Even in Mysore the duty allowance was being permitted to be counted for pension prior to 1934 and that the permission was withdrawn subsequently on account of retrenchment.

Re: (i)

18 under Art 15 of the M.S.R. the duty allowance is an allowance given to an officer in addition to pay or salary, in consideration of the specially onerous nature of his duties or of increased work or responsibility or for the discharge of the duties which do not properly belong to his office and for which there is no sanctioned appointment. under Art 322 (R. an officer cannot count his duty and deputation allowances towards pension.

19 The Asst. Commrs posted as Asst. Secretaries to Govt are given a duty allowance of Rs 50/ p.m. It is not known whether this allowance given to them by way of compensating a loss of allowances they were getting as Asst. Commrs in the charge of C.A. and T.A. or on account of high cost of living at Bangalore.

20 Kind reference is invited to the discussions in the file E.C. 6-45-(1-8,1(613) relating to the establishment, T.A. and contingent charges of the Panchayat Committees of the Economic conference. The Panchayat Committees constituted are of a tentative nature and are continuing year after year. A duty allowance of Rs 50/ is also given to the Secy, P.H. Committee for the additional extra work in addition to his normal work as Asst. Secy to Govt. In any case it comes under Art 15 of the M.S.R and considered as a duty allowance for the extra work. It is given to any officer who works as Secy, P.H. Committee. It is working that a duty allowance and special sanction of Govt is necessary to count the same towards pension. The the interpretation that the allowance Sri Rama Rao is getting is like a teaching allowance cannot be accepted and is a wrong interpretation.

Re: (ii)

21 We have no information whether the duty allowance is permitted to count for ~~Pen~~ pension under Civil Service Regulations. under Art 322 (a-Note 3) of the M.S.R. the duty allowance cannot be counted for pension.

Re: (iii)

22 It is for consideration and orders of Govt whether to permit the officer to count the duty allowance towards his pension and to revive the concession which was in practice prior to 1934 — without creating any inconvenient precedent.

Kbp
13/8/50.

23) Under existing rules, duty allowance of whatever kind does not count for pension, and the rules are subject to no exceptions.

24) As regards the adoption of Indian Civil Service Regulations in this behalf or the amendment of M.S.R. so as to permit D.A. to count for pension, the question can perhaps be taken up only as a general one - by 7/8 - with a limited application if necessary for the benefit of any particular class of officers or for the inclusion of particular classes of duty allowances.

25) In the circumstances, the case of Sri Rama Rao may have to be considered as an individual case requiring special treatment if deemed necessary.

26) Asst comrs who are posted as Asst or under Secretaries to Govt or as Asst to the Hds of Depts in Bangalore, are granted a duty allowance of Rs 50/- pm. in consideration of the fact that conditions of life particularly in Bangalore have become harder, that the work to be attended to by the Sects and other Hd-quarter offices has become more strenuous, exacting and responsible and that unlike Asst comrs in charge of Subdns and Tnasmks, officers drafted to the Sects have to incur extra expenses (which have sharply risen of late) by reason of having to live in the city. From the above it may be seen that the duty allowance given to these officers appears to be of a compensatory character as stated by Sri RamaRao.

27) A duty allowance of Rs 50/- pm. has been sanctioned to Sri Rama Rao for being Secy of the Committee for Public Health, which is one of the committees of Economic Conference. Sri Rama Rao is holding this posting in addition to his Normal duties as Asst Secy to Govt and the duty allowance of Rs 50/- p.m. has been granted to him for extra duties devolved on him thereby. It cannot be regarded as "Teaching allowance" as requested by Sri Rama Rao While "Teaching Allowance" Counts for pension "Duty allowance" does not. If this request of Sri Rama Rao is complied with, several others will prefer a claim for the grant of this Concession.

I forgot this. This is what is meant. It is to be regarded in the same way as "Teaching allowance" for purposes of pension. 11/5

2) Prior to 1934, Duty allowance was being Counted for pension. But this concession was withdrawn as a measure of economy on the recommendation of the Retrenchment Committee. It is doubtful whether we have any opportune for a reconsideration of this decision.

2) In the case of Sri N. V. Sundaram, Asst Secy to Govt (retired) the duty allowance that was being drawn by him, was allowed to be Counted for pension and in the case of Sri P. N. Kunhiraman the duty allowance was converted into Personal Allowance, which is reckoned for pension. The circumstances under which these two officers were given favourable treatment do not exist in the case of Sri Rama Rao. Recently similar representations from Sri S. Hiramanja, Asst Comr (Retd) and Sri C.G. Ramanja, Asst Secy to Govt (Retd) were turned down.

3) In the above circumstances the present request of Sri Rama Rao cannot be complied with, unless it is treated as a very Spl. case.

31) In the linked file there is the representation of Sri P.S.K. Naidu, Asst. Secy to Govt (on leave) making a similar request. A decision on these two cases may perhaps be taken simultaneously.

32) This case seems to be not very much different from those of Sri. P.N. Krishnamurti & V.V. Sundaram. In both cases the duty allowance has been drawn for a long number of years prior to retirement, and the allowances were of a compensatory nature, but definitely for extra-work devolving on the officer, at least in the cases of Sri. Rama Rao & Sri V.V. Sundaram. Of course, the fact that Sri. Sundaram happened to retire just on the day that the G.O. regarding revision of salaries of lower Gazetted Staff issued, is not present in the case of Sri. Rama Rao, but, that was not the only reason which influenced Govt. in granting the concession to Sri. V.V. Sundaram.
